ANDREW L. CARTER, JR., District Judge:

The parties are directed to submit letter briefs, not to exceed five pages, addressing the following issues:

- whether Defendants have waived their right to compel arbitration;
- who has the right to enforce the arbitration agreements and/or clause(s) at issue;
- whether sending notice would affect these enforcement rights; and
- what prejudice to Defendants, if any, arises if notice is sent to individuals bound by relevant arbitration agreements.

In their July 22, 2022 Letter, Defendants referenced agreements that may compel potential members of the class to arbitrate disputes. In addition to letter briefs, the parties are directed to file a copy of the ICE Arbitration Rules and copies of other relevant arbitration agreements. Letter briefs should be submitted on August 10, 2022.

SO ORDERED.
